

The Quarterly Report

Kitchen Manager® has the predisposition for the periodic sending the quarterly report to the registered user.

The report contains a glimpse of the highlights of the last quarter, an excellent starting point for insights available just one click away.

This helps the manager to keep operational and economic situation under control.